About This Game

Outwit your professors at superpower school! Ace your exams, date your classmates, and bring down the nation's most wanted villains to earn your degree.

"Community College Hero: Trial by Fire" is a thrilling 168,000-word interactive novel by Eric Moser, where your choices control the story. It's entirely text-based--without graphics or sound effects--and fueled by the vast, unstoppable power of your imagination.

You've won a scholarship to the nation's newest college course for heroes! But can you discover your classmates' secret identities before they learn yours? Choose your costume and your mask (and maybe your date for this weekend) and get ready to fight crime and dazzle the citizenry! Be an acrobat, sharpshooter, detective, or soldier, with all the abilities that come with each. Wield brass knuckles, a slingshot, or even retractable roller skates in your shoes. Will you investigate the big bad, or wait until you've had more training? Escape liability for damaging other people's property as you learn to control your new powers, or pay up what you owe?

Will you be a brooder, charmer, traditionalist, or trickster? Step into your new super identity, and claim your place as a Community College Hero!

The Contrarian curtsies and gestures to the crowd, mocking the police officers and young heroes in attendance. "Now I suppose you law enforcement types have some work to do! And so I bid my farewell!"

You glance at your classmates on either side of you. Stunner is tensed, his fingers curled into fists. You know he won't be able to use his shockwaves because of the crowd, but he looks ready to leap off the stage any second. Mob is just as tense. His normally friendly mouth is twisted into a scowl.

How are you going to play this? Are you going to let this villain just stroll out of here?

- Yes, it's the safe decision. We need to focus on figuring out her next target!
- Yes, It's the safe decision. She's probably rigged something to blow the minute we make a move anyway!
- No way! I'm taking her down now myself!
- No way! I shout to my classmates, "Take her down!"

Your opponent can't see in the dark, but you neither can you. Eventually your eyes will adjust, but you're worried that if you just sit back and hide that Downfall might blow the whistle and end the match. You really need to win this sparring match to earn a better grade!

What do you do?

- Hide and wait for a few more minutes. It's ridiculous to blindly attack in the dark.
- Charge blindly in his direction. He won't expect a direct attack!
- Shoot blindly in his direction. It can't hurt to try!
- Try to lure him into a trap. It will be difficult to execute, but he's pretty clumsy!

You glance over at the sick child in the hospital playroom. His mother touches the cross around her neck. "I'm sorry for telling you all of this. It's just that I want him to be happy and enjoy the time he has left. If you wanted to keep visiting him, we would be eternally grateful."

She releases the cross and bites her lower lip before finishing her thoughts. "All I ask is that you finish what you start. If you promise to show up, then please don't let him down."

What do you tell her?

- "I will absolutely visit him as often as I can!"
- "Because of my classwork I can only visit him on the weekends."
- "I'm sorry but I need to focus entirely on my classes. I hope you understand."
